Coursera

- Coursera平台提供的課程，均由課程提供者自行製作課程教材並授權給Coursera平台，他們才是真正的著作權人，因此，Coursera無法自行承諾授權給其他團體使用。如須使用本平台的課程教材，請洽課程提供者。
  - Coursera does not own the copyright on any work that you submit in our courses. You have sole copyright over all materials of your own creation, and you retain them unless you formally transfer them to another party.
  - Course materials are owned by the partner institution that created the content. These materials are licensed to Coursera for the sole purpose of offering courses on our online platform, and we cannot grant copyright permissions to other parties. If you would like to use these materials in your own work, please contact the partner institution that created the course to request permission.

edX

- 若希望課程著作是讓學生內容規範，透過學生註冊學，後其過自己平台無須註冊帳號（這是使用本平台的課程教材，我們會在線上的課程授課過程中展示）。若教師於實體課守本平台的課程教材，我們會在線上的課程授課過程中展示。若教師於實體課守本平台的課程教材，我們會在線上的課程授課過程中展示。
- If the students you are showing the materials to will be on their computers we would prefer that they register their own account. If they will just be sitting in a classroom watching videos then that is fine they do not have to register. If the course has ended/is archived then yes it is still ok to show the materials. - As long as the course is online, you are welcome to access it.
